

Hello, my name is Cresca Lam, and I'm excited to be your child's Montessori teacher this year. With nearly 20 years of teaching experience, a degree in Education from Arellano University, and Montessori training from the North American Montessori Center, I'm passionate about guiding young learners on their educational journey. I look forward to a year filled with discovery, growth, and connection as your child blossoms emotionally, socially, and academically!