Thematic Afternoon Program

Session I (June 6-17): DIY Science Experiments

Be a scientist and practice DIY science experiments! We'll learn about the scientific method and create our own experiments like Engineering with Candy, Egg Drop, Water Erosion Models, Make an Egg Bouncy, Balloon Rockets, and so much more! What are the different fields of science? Why follow the scientific method? What is the goal of our experiments and how can it benefit others? Why should we share our observations and results with other scientists?

Session II (June 20-July 1): Feeling Wheel/Mental Health

How are you feeling? What are our primary and secondary emotions? What is mental health? What are ways of expressing our emotions? Are emotions contagious? What is the significance of preserving our mental health? Who can we share our feelings with? What are the stigmas related to the importance of mental health and how has it evolved in the last decade? How do you manage your emotions? How does a healthy mind enable us to make good life decisions? Does an extreme amount of screen time really affect our mental health? How do we keep our mind healthy?

Session III (July 5-15): Oceanography

How many oceans and seas does the earth have? What are they? Which ocean is closest to us? What are waves? What causes waves? How are waves important to the ocean and the life inside of it? What kind of animals and plants live in the oceans? Are there volcanoes in the ocean? Why is the ocean important to us? What do ocean animals need to survive? What are the different layers of the ocean? Are there different types of animals living in different layers of the ocean? How do people and other animals affect the ocean? What resources are under the sea?

Session IV (July 18-Aug. 5): Broadway

The theatre brings our favorite stories to life! What are the benefits of staging a live performance? How does it pique our imagination, curiosity and how we can tie it all together and convey it on stage? What are the workings backstage? How does an actor prepare to embody the character he's about to portray? What is the process of an audition? Besides performers, what other roles are needed to stage a show? We may have opportunities to showcase Hamilton, Wicked, The Sound of Music, School of Rock, Disney's Frozen, Aladdin, or The Lion King!
